HARFORD - The Town of Harford police department is warning residents about a new scam involving a telephone call that purports to be from the Town. The call is a scam pretending to be from the Town of Harford police department with a "Do Not Disturb" request. The complainant's credit/debit cards will then be charged an unauthorized "early termination" fee. Residents should be aware of this scam and not to fall for this scam. The Town of Harford police department will never call to request payment to avoid an unauthorized charge to your credit/debit card. If you receive a call that sounds suspicious, do not make a payment and alert the police department immediately by calling 911.
